Alcohol extract of the gerbil liver was found to contain the antiulcer agent, 4-hydroxycoumarin. A significant increase in the amount of 4-hydroxycoumarin from 20 to approximately 100 micrograms/g of liver extract was obtained during 7 weeks of continuous administration to the animals. 4-Hydroxycoumarin was not detected in the brain of the animals.Deloitte The Deloitte firm will provide IPP Co. with a global brand consulting service to advise on its brand strategy, intellectual property, and our future global entry strategy. This mission will be supported by additional global branding support as requested by IPP, including developing a trademark filing strategy and a comprehensive marketing plan. The firm will also work to identify and evaluate potential business and other partners who may want to join the growing IPP Partners community. Transaction Summary Deloitte Consulting LLP will be given a seat at the IPP Partners International Headquarters in Warsaw. That seat will be managed by a team of Deloitte professionals, comprising a US team of 15 strong and an international team of 3. The worldwide transaction has been valued at $3M. IPP Co. will acquire a seat at the IPP Headquarters for a fee of $150,000 to be paid in two instalments. The company and the team 3e33713323
