The game has been created by a single person. I've added all my graphics, physics, coding and music but unfortunately I haven't the time to balance the game with further content. I'm looking for someone who can give me input on what to add as next DLC. I love your ideas! Please e-mail me if you are interested and if you want to talk about the game or have any questions. Cheers GabeN

Welcome to the magical realm Draginsanity. It is full of dragons! And it is totally insane! It used to be a world where dragons lived together in peace and harmony. But one day an evil wizard cast a spell that turned most of the dragons into evil minions. He also reduced the amount of mana in the air. The mana enabled the dragons to fly and spit fire. Without it the resistance against the wizard died quickly. All hope was lost until one day a dragon was gifted with the power to see the few remaining mana hotspots in the air and use them to his advantage. Draginsanity is a nostalgic 2D platformer and it's easy to play. No matter which button you press: If the hero dragon is surrounded by green mana he will fly. If he is surrounded by red mana he will spit fire. But beware: The mana might move and it's difficult to foresee where it will go. Explore ten stages and fight a boss at the end of every stage. Don't stop, because the screen keeps moving. And watch out: If you get hit three times you loose. About The Game GabeN DLC: The game has been created by a single person. Decipher a plate's empty spaces and discover what's on the other side. All you need to do is find the missing piece. No timers, no rules and no mistakes. Just fun. Plates controls: - Touch one of the plates. - The number of dots in the plate grows. - The dot color changes. - The camera zooms in. - When two plates touch, the game is over. Enjoy the game! Decide whether to add or remove an arrangement of colored circles to make a bigger, or "super", circle. Each super circle is worth more, and you've got three attempts to complete the puzzle. Just match the circles to the corresponding dots to form the largest (and most valuable) circle. Can you make a tower that is three high and wide? Take a look at the instructions carefully and give it your best shot. Remember the basic principles - a corner-point always helps! You can pause the game for a more comfortable game experience. Watch out for out of bounds lines and guards. Use your point to put the counter up where it's needed for points. Then, watch to see if the counter can fall to the other end. It might not work the first time, but once you get the hang of it, you'll be up there in no time. The raging bull will try to crush you in its path, but you can sprint to either side for a quick escape. You can also backtrack to the previous screen by tapping the screen the other way. Find the shortcuts. One of the bovines is injured and needs a doctor. Can you help her by stitching the wound? The lasso action takes place in the bottom half of the screen, and each new lasso also lassoes adjacent tiles. Hover your mouse over a square in the field to quickly zoom in and out, or click the squares to zoom in. This is great for staring long distances at an object or pixel-peeping to get a closer look. Of course, you can also click the "X" to zoom out. Loot and capture all of the land mines in order to save your team mates. Find the only path where you can, otherwise it's game over for them. Tailor your horse's armor and gear with skills, and then head into battle. There are just enough mines and foes to really put the horse's skills to the test c9d1549cdd

Report: Nashville Predators Draft Lottery Results The Nashville Predators won the 2013 NHL Draft lottery making them the new division leaders along with the wildcard Winnipeg Jets. Many Preds fans were enamored with the thought of the Preds winning the lottery and possibly picking T.J. Oshie. Granted, the Preds were only 5 points back from the second wild card in the West at the end of the season; however, I can't help but think there would have been a vastly different story had the Preds not been so close to making the playoffs. Mark Scheifele Of MTL Has A Lot Of Love For The Nashville Predators Regarded as the best goaltending prospect in all of hockey, free agent goaltender and Winnipeg Jets T.J. Oshie will not be heading to Nashville any time soon. A restricted free agent, the Nashville Predators will have to send a "pro-rated" fourth-round pick to the Jets as his signing bonus. As reported by Puck Daddy's Greg Wyshynski, the Jets will only receive a "5-percent discount" on that pick with the caveat that if he "signs elsewhere, he'll void the trade." This is where the Preds get really lucky, because despite the fact that they had a better record (and points total) than the Jets, they came in with four tenths of a percentage point advantage in winning the lottery. Given that the Frozen Four Select Division winner, as well as Frozen Four champion receives the second overall pick, the Preds are awarded the second overall pick in the upcoming 2013 NHL Draft. According to the NHL Draft Guide, they typically go with a defenseman in the first round, and usually go with wingers and centermen later in the first round. Projected Nashville Predators 2013 Draft Order The Predators will most likely only have two selections in the second round as they are projected to take Sam Reinhart, a left winger out of Sam Lake Superior State University and the greatest North American prospect since Sidney Crosby, and then Nikolai Prokhorkin, a defensemen out of Peterborough MA Panthers will most likely follow. If Nashville Picks Sam Reinhart If Nashville Picks Nikolai Prokhorkin Friday - Sam Reinhart (HSBC) RW 6'1 - 175 lbs 201 - Sam Reinhart - Lake Superior State University A member of
