It was a lovely family holiday..San Francisco: California's Democratic Senator Kamala Harris is seeking a year-long leave of absence from the Senate next month to run for US president, she told colleagues on Monday. Ms Harris, a liberal firebrand who has long been expected to join the 2020 presidential race, said she would step down as a senator in January. "I am running for president of the United States, and will be leaving my current job as a US senator in order to give my full attention and energy to this campaign," she wrote to colleagues. Immunocytochemical localization of HLA-A, -B, -C, and -DR antigens in normal and neoplastic cells of the human central nervous system. The distribution and specificity of histocompatibility antigens in the central nervous system (CNS) of the human body has been studied immunocytochemically. Antisera to class I, class II, and class III histocompatibility antigens were used in double immunofluorescence experiments. The antigenic site of a tissue section was labeled with one of the antisera in combination with the fluorescent microscope, and then the other antisera were used to locate the histocompatibility antigens. Lymphoid cells in the meninges and ependymal cells of the ventricle were strongly positive for class I antigens. The myelin forming cells of the optic nerve and spinal cord also showed a strong positivity for class I antigens. The astrocytic cells in all areas were negative for these antigens. Although all oligodendrocytes in the optic nerve and spinal cord, except those of the fiber tracts, were positive for class II antigens, none of the cells in the periventricular area and meninges stained positively for class II antigens. On the contrary, some of these cells were strongly positive for class I antigens. The ependymal cells of the ventricle showed strong positivity for class I antigens. None of the oligodendrocytes and astrocytic cells in the ependyma of the ventricle were positive for class II antigens.

In English, enumerator is a word with no apostrophe, so shouldn't it be: console.log(["a", "b"]); However, in JavaScript, it's written: console.log(['a', 'b']); Why is this? A: Because that's how ECMAScript specifies it. If you want to quote it, you need to use another trick: console.log(['...'a', 'b']); вторая часть на сайте модального окна будет переключена в нужный вам вид вкладки, позволяет вам наблюдать за этой вкладкой и использовать функцию метода getWindow() чтобы получить введенную вам вкладку:
