

the only thing that's cool about these toys is that their heads are made out of a wood that erases when it gets wet. now, you can play around with people's heads with no worries about fingerprints and all. they even count the number of times you use them, so you won't lose your favorite pair. get them on now and enjoy these games for a long time. i had this idea last night in the train on my way back from the studio. at 2.30 a.m. then it's a good idea to work on it. after a few hours i reached to final cut pro x. the video quality i am editing is on high quality, however once the files are exported to the prores 422hq they look great for day and long while. (but they end up looking like a gay porno.) the audio sound is not great. but that can be done on the go. thanks for watching. you can find me on twitter. @weildgoodman - i should tweet more. what a lot of work. you would think with fcpx to even make a bad porno. i managed to do it. i hope you can find this funny. - <https://youtu.be/v1wohbrvq5e> pictures are done in lightroom. i did a long download on winrar. i take all screenshots in lightroom from hd iphone and ipad. i now have about 10gb of images.. here are the steps: a) go into lightroom. b) open up my albums. c) click on the top row "portrait" and select "apply base". d) go into the actions tab. e) set the lumen drop down to 4000 or 5000. f) press the down arrow key. g) select "fix red eye". h) press the button "apply". i) press the button "save" and go back to your main lightroom window. j) go into the "select" tab. k) select the top row "portrait" and select "chimp". l) go into the actions tab. m) set the lumen drop down to 5000. n) press the down arrow key. o) select "pixelate". p) press the button "apply". q) press the button "save" and go back to your main lightroom window. r) click on the top row "portrait" and select "import media". s) go into the selections tab. t) press the button on the top row "import media" then the button "all photos". u) select the images on your computer. v) press the button "import". w) turn off the ability to sort by "date taken". x) save.
